

Prison Research Seminar

Wednesday 7th July 2010 at 10.30 until 4.30

St Michaels College, Llandaff, Cardiff

PROGRAMME

Arrivals and coffee	10.00
Welcome and Introductions	10.30
1 st Paper:	Sophie Gilliat-Ray and Mansur Ali The politics of contemporary Muslim prison chaplaincy	10.45
Coffee		11.45
2 nd Paper	Peter Phillips Collar and chain: seeking the chaplain's identity	12.00
Lunch		13.00
3 rd Paper	Lee Tipton and Andrew Todd Breaking into Prison Chaplaincy – five prisons, eight weeks and still no free radio!	14.00
Coffee		15.00
4 th Paper	Ros Lane Imprisoned Grief: A Chaplaincy approach to supporting male prisoners in their loss and grief. An Action Research proposal. Work in progress	15.15
Finish		16.30

Sophie Gilliat-Ray – Director at the Centre for Study of Islam in the UK
Mansur Ali – Post Doctoral Research at the Centre for Study of Islam in the UK
(working on the centre's Muslim Chaplain Research Project)

Peter Phillips – Former Prison Chaplain and PhD Student of the Cardiff Centre for Chaplaincy Studies

Lee Tipton – Post Doctoral Search at the Cardiff Centre for Chaplaincy Studies also (working on the centres Prison Research Project).

Andrew Todd – Director Cardiff Centre for Chaplaincy Studies

Ros Lane – Prison Chaplain and Professional Doctorate Student