1. How would you describe the genre of the sermon? What sort of sermon was this (e.g. teaching, expository, thematic, meditation, challenging, evangelistic, all-age worship talk)? Not every sermon can do everything, and there are quite different approaches to preaching: the purpose of this question is to enable the sermon to be judged on its own terms.
2. What was the aim of the sermon?
3. How did the sermon engage with the text?

9. What were the 2 strongest points of the content of the sermon?

10. What were the 2 strongest points of the delivery of the sermon?

11. What aspects could be developed further?
